About the Program: This training differs from previous Administrator Mentor trainings. This training will emphasize the coaching and mentoring tools a mentor will use throughout this process. Previously trained mentors are welcome to attend in order to update their certification and learn new information. Note: This is the only training to be offered this year.

Fee: $45 – Includes breakfast, lunch, and materials.

Audience: Any experienced Administrator who wants to learn about becoming a great mentor and coach for novice principals. Newly appointed principals are encouraged to attend so they can learn more about the process.

Sponsored by the Office of Educator Licensing and Development, Indiana Department of Education
